

Gospel

Luke 14:1, 7-14

1. Does anything cripple you, or sometimes make you blind? Discuss the fact that Jesus experienced our human pain along with us in order to help us get to the banquet. Do you feel any responsibility as a member of the body of Christ to help other people get to the banquet?

2. "When you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind. ..." In Evangelii Gaudium, Pope Francis offers an explanation of one way "you will be blessed" if and when you do this. Have you experienced this blessing?

... I want a Church which is poor and for the poor. They have much to teach us. Not only do they share in the sensus fidei, (sense of the faithful) but in their difficulties they know the suffering Christ. We need to let ourselves be evangelized by them. The new evangelization is an invitation to acknowledge the saving power at work in their lives and to put them at the centre of the Church's pilgrim way. We are called to find Christ in them, to lend our voice to their causes, but also to be their friends, to listen to them, to speak for them and to embrace the mysterious wisdom which God wishes to share with us through them.

Apostolic Exhortation Evangelii Gaudium

Without humility we cannot encounter God, we cannot experience salvation, and we cannot even encounter our neighbour, the brother and sister living near us.
